In-Country/In-Region Scholarship Programme South Asia

Call for Scholarship Applications 2022 at the Indian Institute of Technology Bombay (IITB)

Funded by the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ)

Application Closing Date (IITB and DAADportal): January 15, 2022

Programme Objectives

The programme aims at fostering strong, internationally oriented higher education systems in South Asia with the capacity to contribute to sustainable development. To this end, scholarships are granted for development-related Master or doctoral studies for individuals who plan to pursue a career in teaching and / or research at a higher education institution in South Asia.

By training future academic and professional leaders, the programme contributes to the following long-term impacts:

- Qualified professionals' involvement in the solution of development-related problems in South Asia
- Graduates strengthening education and research in South Asia
- Structural strengthening and regional networking of partner institutions and partner universities

To achieve these long-term impacts, the following outcomes have been formulated as programme objectives:

Programme objective 1: Graduates have qualified to take over responsible positions in their, or for their, region of origin

Programme objective 2: The participation of women and underprivileged groups is reinforced

Programme objective 3: Organizational, financial and personal capacities of partner institutions are strengthened

As part of the „In-Region Scholarship Programme“, DAAD offers scholarships for PhD and Master studies. The programme is funded by the German Federal Ministry of Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) and aims at university staff in the first line, without neglecting the public sector demand of academically trained personnel.

The target group for scholarships are graduates and postgraduates from Bhutan, Bangladesh, Nepal or Sri Lanka with a first academic degree if applying for a Master's programme, or with a Master's degree if applying for a doctoral programme who want to pursue Master's or PhD courses in India (In-Region scholarships are aimed at students who want to participate in a study programme in a country of their home region.)

It has been agreed upon that DAAD cooperates with the Indian Institute of Technology in Bombay by offering up to 20 for PhD and Master studies at the IIT in Bombay for the intake 2022/2023. The awarding of scholarships will be subject to the provision of funds.

Duration and Commencement

The duration

- of the PhD programme is generally five years and is usually starting in July/August 2022
- of the Master programme is generally two years and is usually starting in July/August 2022.

Please note that the maximum duration of the scholarship is based on the time that is left until the scholarship holder has reached the regular period of studies in that programme; i.e., if you apply for a DAAD scholarship starting in your second year of studies of a three-year programme, the maximum duration of the scholarship will be two years.

Application and Selection Procedure

The application process contains two steps. Please be aware of the DAAD application deadline as well as IITB's deadline.

First step:

Applicants must apply for their studies at IITB for admission.

IITB's Deadline: January 15, 2022

Register online under Admission for foreign students: IIT Bombay Portal

Contact at IITB for admission: dean.ir.office@iitb.ac.in

IITB will screen, pre-select (according to DAAD selection criteria) and short-list the applicants. A detailed report consisting of the shortlisting procedure, the entire list of applicants, the ranked shortlist and the shortlisting panel members will also be availed to DAAD. The ranked shortlist will contain preferably triple (at least double) the number of scholarships that have been attributed to the institution.

DAAD reserves the right of final selection.

Second step:

All Applicants are asked to log into the DAAD-Portal, register themselves and submit a DAAD application.

Deadline for DAAD application 15th January 2022.

Register online via the DAAD-Portal (if not already registered):

Scholarship funding

The scholarship covers:

Item	Payment	Amount
Tuition Fees*	Twice a year	the regularly charged amount
Study and research allowance	annually	460 EUR (Master) 920 EUR (PhD)
Printing allowance	once towards the end of scholarship	400 EUR (Master) 800 EUR (PhD)

Monthly Scholarship (Accommodation, Food etc.)	monthly	300 EUR (Master) 500 EUR (PhD)
Travel allowance (In-Region only)	twice (beginning/ end of scholarship)	The flat rate travel allowance will be specified in the letter of award

*Please note that in some cases not all fees and costs that are mentioned on the official fee structure of the host institution can be covered by DAAD in full, e.g. if the agreement with the funding organization prevents us from funding certain items in the fee structure or if items that are included in the fees are supposed to be covered through the individual scholarship benefits.

Payment of scholarship funds

The DAAD will endeavour to transfer / pay out the first monthly payment to you as quickly as possible after your arrival/ after the beginning of your scholarship. Processing the first transfer of funds may take some time, especially if you are able to set up your bank account only after your arrival in your destination country. To be able to cover the costs which arise until you receive your first scholarship payment, we recommend that you bring a financial reserve with you.

Please note that the travel allowance for In-Region scholarship holders will only be transferred along with the first scholarship rate, i.e. after the arrival in the host country.

The scholarship will either be disbursed by the DAAD branch office or will be paid directly to the scholarship holder's banking account. Further details will be announced after admission to the scholarship programme on the Letter of Award.

Additional benefits

DAAD In-Country/In-Region scholarship holders are also

- a) encouraged to apply for a research stay in Germany for 2 up to 6 months. Please note: The short-term research stay in Germany should preferably be announced in the application for the regular scholarship and can only be awarded if the necessary financial means are available.

The short-term research scholarship includes:

- a monthly scholarship payment for living costs
- health/accident/personal liability insurance
- a flat-rate travel allowance

- b) invited to apply for different Summer Schools in Germany (four weeks)

All further details regarding additional benefits and the additional application processes will be provided after admission to the scholarship programme.
